

Because We are His

A storm is raging all across the heavens
Gods might power now is being shown;
The lighting flashes, the thunder crashes
But there is peace and safety for his own.

Chorus

Because we are His, His arms of love surround us
Though there are many dangers all around us;
Even death can not the child of God destroy
There awaits eternal life, and peace, and joy.

The earth beneath our feet begins to tremble,
Things topple down, and houses fall apart;
The earth is quaking, grown men are shaking
But there is peace within His children's heart.

Chorus

Because we are His, His arms of love surround us
Though there are many dangers all around us;
Even death can not the child of God destroy
There awaits eternal life, and peace, and joy.

Rose Moody circa 1970